

Select Bourns® Chip Resistor Models

Advance Notice - Manufacturing Location Change

Riverside, California – October 13, 2026 – Bourns will be transferring production of select chip resistor model families to another established manufacturing facility. The new manufacturing site already manufactures similar technologies and supports Bourns products.

Product design, materials, specifications, form, fit, function, manufacturing processes, quality controls, and reliability will remain unchanged. Existing equipment, processes, and quality standards will be maintained throughout the transition.

This is a preliminary notification. A complete list of affected part numbers and implementation details will be provided shortly in the official PCN.
